There are many ways to improve your English. Going to an English speaking country is one of them. There are other efficient ways to do that if you are not able to go abroad. Some of them are listed down.

Watch films in English.
Listen to the English radio stations like BBC 5.
Watch television channels broadcasting in English.
Read daily newspapers in English like "Today's Zaman."
Read stories and novels written in English.
Listen to English songs and memorise them.

In Turkey the biggest problem you face while learning English is that you hardly find someone to practise your English. If you are living in a tourist centre such as Antalya or Bodrum it is different then. You are luckier compared to the other learners. It is easy for them to practise their English. If you are having this problem I can suggest you to role play with your friends, classmates or family members as much as you can.
